

Materials for Each Study

Each study has a corresponding book that will be used by each person in your group(s). The book contains the Bible text being studied, commentary written by a Catholic scholar, occasional brief inserts highlighting the material being studied, questions for reflection and discussion, and opening and closing prayers for each lesson.

In addition, wrap-up lectures are available for each lesson. Your group may choose to use local presenters or make use of the recorded lectures from Little Rock Scripture Study. The recorded lectures are available free online (with a link provided in each book) or may be purchased on DVD for a minimal cost. Ideally, the lectures are viewed together as a group after the group discussion, but may also be viewed by individuals after each lesson.

Each person will need a current translation of the Bible. We recommend the Little Rock Catholic Study Bible, which makes use of the New American Bible, Revised Edition translation. Other translations, such as the New Jerusalem Bible or the New Revised Standard Version: Catholic Edition, would also work well.
